Book Description

This reprint of the all-star war-comics anthology is an expanded edition, with a cover gallery featuring all of Frazetta's painted covers and exclusive interviews with Goodwin and publisher James Warren. These controversial-at-the-time war stories were produced by some of the top comics talents of the 20th century—written by Goodwin and drawn by John Severin, Alex Toth, Russ Heath, Reed Crandall, and many more. Black & white illustrations with some color.
